

The Journal of Media Practice 10th Anniversary Symposium

Monday 13 July 2009, 9:30 - 6:00

Hosted by
The Centre for Material Digital Culture
University of Sussex, Falmer, Brighton

Conference organisers:
Lizzie Thynne with Adrian Goycoolea

The annual symposium of the key journal in the field of media practice focuses this year on the uses and construction of memory in contemporary media practice. Established and emerging practitioner-scholars will discuss how their creative work addresses this theme in a variety of media including sound, dance, video and interactive media.

Panels and Speakers:

Archives: creation and interpretation

Paul Long & Jez Collins, Mary Kathleen Smith & Rachel Graham, Olivia Lory Kay, Paula Roush

Memory, spaces, communities

Sarah Bennett, Inga Burrows, Ian Wiblin, Anne Robinson

Documentary/narrative/fiction

Steven Eastwood, Wilma de Jong, Johannes Sjöberg

Sounds and voices of history

David Malcolm Chapman, Tahera Aziz, Jem Kelly

Auto/biographies and family

Melanie Friend, Tony Steyger, Michael Chanan

Performances of memory

Gillian Gordon, Anya Lewin, Simon Ellis

Registration: £60 full/£15 student.

For more information or to register contact

Anjuli Daskarolis at A.Daskarolis@sussex.ac.uk

Full programme at <http://www.sussex.ac.uk/mediastudies/1-1.php?id=196>

